

JTI is Best Employer in Bulgaria for a sixth year

Sofia, (28 April 2022) JTI Bulgaria is ranked one of the Best Employers in Bulgaria for the sixth time according to ARS Bulgaria' survey in partnership with Kincentric. The company receives this recognition for the sixth time out of six participations in the survey conducted in the country. JTI Bulgaria is awarded in the category of small companies with up to 250 employees in 2022. The methodology includes 2 types of research related to employee engagement and management team.

“We strive to encourage a positive working environment and diversity, to motivate our employees to give their best and to be the company’ and its values ambassadors. Of course, this is a journey, in which development, learning and adaptation to new situations and constant changes should never stop”, commented Vladislav Mihov, Country Manager of JTI Bulgaria.

AON Hewitt, through its entity in Bulgaria and in partnership with Kincentric, is a global company for HR consulting services. It has conducted the Best Employers Survey for 15 years among 150 000 employees.

On top of that, in 2022 JTI is awarded a Global Top Employer for its innovative approach to equality and wellbeing. JTI Bulgaria is also certified a Top Employer for another year. This year JTI offices in record 35 countries are awarded as Top Employers for their persistence in creating and supporting a high-quality working environment.
